Horse Thieves,

We are informed by the Prairie Hill Swastika that on Monday night of last week Pat Roden and Harry Davis of Salisbury drove to the farm of Pat's brother, Lon Roden, one-fourth mile west of Prairie Hill, and took one of Lon's horses back to Salisbury with them. They then went to the stable of Ben & Davis, (Harry's father) and took his fine horse. They then saddled the horses and rode them out of Satisbury, going west. Pat sold his horse just west of Brunswick and bought another. The sheriff was notified and went over and got the horse. We have no particulars as to whether therboys have been caught or not, but the supposition is that they have,

Sim Washburn was a Kansas City visitor last Thursday and Friday, says the Rothville Bee, and while walking down one of the business streets during the storm be said he heard a crash of glass above his head, and look. ing upward saw a large 8x8 foot plate-glass falling. He quickly stepped to one side and the glass struck the walk within 12 he had several hours wait before he could get a chance to get out of the city. He says that Rothville is big enough for him during windstorms and blizzards.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its

Mrs. M. C. Hardin of Mendon, whose husband, Lon Hardin, was killed the 19th of last Month from being struck by the Santa Fe water train at Mendon while he was in the employ of that road as a section hand, has been paid $3,000 by the company in full of her claim for damages.

We note in the Democrat that while Joe Rucker was hauling a load of hay on his farm, near Salisbury, Monday of last week. the rear end of the hay slipped off the wagon, carrying Mr. Rucker with it, and in the fall two of his ribs were broken. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

The Whitham Record of last week inculges in this story at the expense of W. R. McGrew, one of the Courier's good friends $400. of near Mendon, who was in Whitham Tuesday while on his way home from Keytesville: He went to the Wabash depot, called for a ticket to Mendon and wanted to know just what time 16-$2,600. the train would arrive. The agent at the depot informed Mr. McGrew he did not handle Santa ne ne 9.53 16-$400. Fe trains or tickets. Of course, being excited, he will be excused this time. The Record advises him to call at the depot at Mendon and get a Santa Fe folder before going away from home next time.

We note in the Constitution that nches of his feet. Sim decided Mrs. J. B. Accola and Mrs. Adam that it was about time to leave Gehrig of Mendon received news the metropolitan city, so he went Wednesday that their brother, to the hotel and telephoned to Chas. Leutwiler, had been in the Union station only to find stantly killed by a train. They out that passenger train No. 20 had not received full particulars due at Rothville at 10:13 a.m., of the sad accident at the time had just left the depot. He then the Constitution went to press, remained in the hotel until in but they suppose the accident the afternoon, when he went must have happened at Reno, Ill., over to the station house, where where Mr. Leutwiler was engaged in business.

The Brunswicker of last week indulges in the following, which should cause the late BaronMunchausen to come out of his grave clothes and look to his laurels: "When unusual storms come, unusual things usually happen, and few there be who will say that last Friday's storm was not unusual. Well, during the storm, one of the aforesaid unusual occurences took place at the homeof Wm. Sasse, who lives several miles northwest of town, in the vicinity of Triplett. About the barn on Mr. Sasse's place there roosted a number of various fowl, and one of these, an ordinary Missouri ben, was seen to rise in the air and fly some distance. Suddenly she dropped, as if shot dead. She was picked up, carried to the house and placed on the oven door of the cook stove. To all appearances she was dead. She lay there some time, then "came to" a little and crawled into the oven Pretty soon she emerged eackling and strutting, and it was found that she had left a nice fresh egg in the oven. But Tony insists that the hen WAS dead. If you don't believe it, call at the store and he'll prove it to you,"
